A MESSAGE FROM REVEREND JODY

As I begin this letter, I want to thank all of you that prayed me through my two week self quarantine. It felt less like total isolation knowing that I was in your thoughts. Have you noticed that when you can't be out and about as usual, time seems to drag, and one day melts into another? I think that has been the case for a lot of us these last few months.

When all you have is time on your hands, your mind tends to focus on things that may not be helpful to your state of mind. As August inches closer we may wonder if things will ever be back to what we call normal. The blessing for us is that one thing has never changed. The Cross at Calvary gave us life. Christ has been and is with us. Forget the media, forget the unkind person at the grocery store. As the old song says:

“ Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Look full in His wonderful face
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim
In the light of His glory and grace.”

God bless you and keep you until I see you again.

Rev Jody

AUGUST LIBRARY NEWS

GOOD SHEPHERD READERS! This month I outdid myself. I read four books, one history, two mysteries, and one summer reading. All were enjoyable readings, and didn't demand a whole lot of concentration. In other words, easy reading. In August I will get back to my usual historical fiction or real history.

The titles are: Sam Houston & the Alamo Avengers by Brian Kilmeade. I always wondered if the Mexicans took back the Alamo, how did Texas become our State. This book answers that question. Books 2 and 3 I borrowed from Mary Gossett. S is for Silence and P is for Peril. Sue Grafton authored both books. She wrote several mysteries beginning with the letters of the alphabet. The fourth book I read is the Happy Hour Bookstore book club selection for August. A delightful summer read.

When we can gather again at church, I will put books 1 and 4 on our Library table. I am getting quite a few here at home and will be happy to have a place to put them.

I hope everyone is staying well. Keep on reading, the time will come soon, I hope, when we can once again gather at God's house of worship.

The contest is still on. Remember, keep track of how many you've read so far this year. HAPPY READING.

Your Good Shepherd Bookworm (Library Committee: Sharon and Kirk Hayden, Nancy Masters, Elaine McWatt, and Dolores Widgren)
